Course Description

ENG 82B - WRITTEN COMMUNICATION II

The course includes critical reading and evaluation of selected texts and writings; composition of well-organized expository papers; a careful consideration of methods of research, organization in a clear, logical manner and other elements involved in writing research papers. (3 units)

Learning Objectives

Students will develop their writing skills for personal, academic, professional, and socio-cultural purposes, in context-centered writing. Learning objectives include enhanced ability in all phases of writing, including planning, developing, editing, and presenting. With a focus on best practices in contemporary communication methods and effective use of online and offline resources, students will gain competencies needed for success with their own composition process and results as needed in a variety of functional contexts.

Topical Outline

English 82B covers the aspects of composing well-organized written communications in functional contexts. The core of the course will emphasize practice in organizing ideas in a clear, logical manner and other elements involved in writing papers in various applied contexts.

Topics include: writing development based on critical reading and evaluation of both student and professional writing. Review of the foundation for writing in personal, academic, and professional contexts.

Assignments

For each of the units (as well as additional assignments given in class), students will do the following by the date listed on the schedule below:

Read assigned materials with care and understanding.

Respond to the main points of each chapter assigned by listing three or four key questions with answers (no more than two or three sentences each).

Reflect on the unit in writing (a brief paragraph or two).

Email your unit and chapter assignments to me at profsylvia@gmail.com, before the date on the schedule.

Unit essays will be required as per the course schedule. For midterm and final review assignments, students will present ePortfolios/PPTs adapted from the weekly assignments as individual or team projects.
