Instructional Materials and References: Dessler, Gary, "Human Resource Management," 14th ed. (Upper Saddle River, New Jersey: Pearson Education, Inc., 2015). ISBN 13: 978-0-13-354517-3.

Instructional Methods: Lectures supported by PowerPoint slides with supervised exercises and business case studies. The emphasis will be on learning by doing.

Every student must participate in intensive classroom activities, must complete homework and course assignments, and take the exams.

Topical Outline: The course provides a complete, comprehensive review of essential personnel management concepts and techniques such as equal opportunity and the law, job analysis, recruitment and placement, testing, training and development, compensation, benefits and employee services, labor relations, employee safety and health, and International human resources. An integrating theme throughout the course is “The High Performance Organization: Building Better, Faster, More Competitive Organizations through Human Resources.” A second integrating theme is that of creating competitive advantage by fostering employee commitment.

Course Requirements: Students will be responsible for completing the textbook chapter readings prior to the lectures, homework and classroom activities, case studies, mid-term and final exams.

Assessment Criteria and Methods of Evaluating Students:

The basis for the determination of the final grade for the course will be the total weighted score for all activities according to the percentages shown in the table below:

Discussion Questions:	20%
Case Incidents:	15%
Self-Assessment Library:	15%
Internet Search Assignment	10%
Comprehensive Final Exam:	35%
Attendance	05%
	100%

Grading Scale (Point/Grade Conversion):

100-95 A	76-74 C
94-90 A-	73-70 C-
89-87 B+	69-65 D+
86-84 B	64-60 D
83-80 B-	59 or <F
79-77 C+

Attendance: Regular attendance at classes is essential. Each student is expected to be present for scheduled class periods, to be punctual, and to remain in class for the entire scheduled period. Excessive absences or tardiness may result in loss of credit, lowering of grade, or dismissal from the class. Students are responsible for making up class work missed.

Examinations: The final exam will consist of short answer and/or essay questions evaluating the student's understanding of the basic concepts, terms, processes, and issues covered in the course.

Electronic Devices: Cell phone ringers must be turned off while in the classroom and placed in a vibrating mode. Smart phone and laptop screens may not be viewed in class while lectures are in progress unless otherwise instructed.

Integrity and Quality of Scholarship: Integrity of scholarship must be maintained at all times. Plagiarism (copying directly from an author's work) is not permitted. All written work is to be word-processed unless otherwise indicated and should reflect college-level ability in English structure, grammar, spelling, and sophistication of analysis.

Modification of the Syllabus: The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time during the course. An announcement of any changes will be made in class.

Fall Semester 2016, 08/23/16 to 10/13/16; Tuesday & Thursday, 6:30 to 9:15 PM

Homework and Classroom Activities:

NOTE: Students will answer the "Discussion Questions" in advance of lectures, word process the answers, bringing them to every class, prepared to respond if called upon by the instructor to summarize the answers to these discussion questions. Satisfactory answers will be scored as a 2 (strong answer), 1 (satisfactory answer), or 0 (unsatisfactory answer or absence). Students will submit the discussion question answers to the instructor at the final exam.

NOTE: Students will analyze and solve the "Case Incidents" under the guidance of the instructor, apply relevant concepts and practical applications found in the respective chapters, word process the answers to the questions following the cases, and submit them to the instructor at the final exam.

NOTE: Students will be given the opportunity to make presentations before the class of their responses to the Questions for the Case Incidents during the course. Students must be prepared to deliver creditable responses. Student's presentation skills will be assessed and evaluated for their professional demeanor. Please be prepared to participate. What you put into the course will determine what you get out of it and what others get out of it.

NOTE: Self-Assessment Library: Insights Into Your Skills, Interests, and Abilities. Self-assessment questionnaire handouts will be completed in class in conjunction with the textbook readings. Students will record their self-assessment scores and an analysis/interpretation of them on the questionnaires to be submitted to the instructor in class upon completion of the exercise.

NOTE: Undergraduate students will conduct an Internet Search Assignment to be assigned by the instructor. Students will summarize the results of their Internet Search Assignment and submit them to the instructor at the final exam.
