CATALOG DESCRIPTION

An analysis of international marketing principles and organizations, including design of operations and products to meet consumer preferences in various parts of the world. Including a study of international forms of business organization in social, economic, and cultural settings, as well as principles of international marketing management. A one-unit written research project and its oral presentation are required for the course.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- Students will understand the scope and challenges of international marketing.
- Students will understand the changes different economic, social and political systems.
- Students will be able to assess opportunities and develop corresponding strategies.
- Students will develop a comprehensive marketing plan.

PROCERDURES AND METHODOLOGY

Lecture method is used in combination with marketing case studies. The emphasis will be on learning by doing. Every student must participate in an intensive classroom activity.

COURSE PROJECT

Every student in the class, working as a team, must design and implement a plan for developing a marketing plan for an existing company. Final project is due the next to the last class will be presented orally on the last day of class. The last day each group will do an oral presentation.

MS/DOCTORAL STUDIES PROJECT

Every student in the doctoral program will be expected to develop a more comprehensive marketing mix. The written project and the oral presentation will both be presented in the last scheduled class.

REQUIREMENTS

Continuous assessment is emphasized. Written assignments will be given every week. Reading, writing and “business case study” assignments will be scheduled throughout the course. Students must complete all assignments and take all exams on the dates scheduled. Plagiarism will result in the grade “F” and a report to the administration.

- * If you miss a class, you are responsible for getting notes on the material covered from a classmate.
- * To avoid distracting noise in class, cellular phones must be turned off or the ringing mode silenced.
- * Questions and comments during the class are welcome. Do not hesitate to ask questions - do not leave anything unclear for you.

MODIFICATION OF THE SYLLABUS

The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time during the semester. Announcements of any changes will be made in the classroom.

INSTRUCTOR BIO

My first career was in operations for manufacturers. I worked as an expediter, quality control inspector, junior chemist, front line supervisor and plant manager. I was lucky enough to be a poverty attorney during the “War on Poverty”. My third career was as a producer, director, script writer and actor for a murder mystery company. For the past thirty years I have had a consulting firm, specializing in management and marketing problems, both domestically and internationally.

Like many students, I pursued four degree programs while working full time. My passion is teaching. I have over thirty years of teaching graduate and undergraduate business classes. I have had the opportunity to work and travel to 187 countries.
