Understanding Business, 2013 10th Edition, W. G. Nickels, J. M. McHugh, S. M. McHugh; McGraw-Hill; ISBN : 978-0-07-352459-7

Course Description:

A survey of the basic functions, objectives, and structure of a modern business within the framework of a free-enterprise system. The course focuses upon the specialization and interdependence of business function and skill in decision-making. It is a prerequisite for all business major courses except accounting and statistics.

Last Revision: January 11th, 2017

Course Objectives:

1. To understand the concept of economic systems, competition, and business enterprises in the international marketplace.
2. To gain knowledge of business ethics and laws, accounting and computer data systems by which businesses are controlled, banking and securities.
3. To understand the types of business ownership for small and large enterprises, organizational structures and management function.
4. To discuss the fundamentals of insurance, production, marketing, human resources, and employee motivation.

Instructional Methods:

The course will be conducted in the form of lectures and interactive discussions on the present economic environment and business essentials. Video case studies will be provided.
