CATALOG DESCRIPTION

This course is intended to deal with the fundamental theories of international relations, global interdependence, the modern nation-state system, and the causes of war and conditions of peace. It covers theories of direct foreign investments, behavior of MNC's, country risk analysis, money and finances, investment restrictions and incentives, prospects for international investments. (3 units).

Prerequisite: ECON 10 or ECON 20A

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

In our study, we will attempt to break artificial barriers that divide trade theory, international finance and political economy in order to gain a better understanding of the highly interconnected modern world. We will introduce approaches used for the evaluation of international trade policy, international financial processes, as well as global financial crises.

PROCEDURES AND METHODOLOGY

This is a direct classroom instruction course.

Lecture method is combined with in-class discussions, case studies and assignments of various kinds. Participation in in-class activities is an essential part of the course and will be graded.

Assignments and projects require students to actively use resources of the library. Detailed guide to business resources of the library as well as the description of Lincoln University approach to information literacy are available at the Center for Teaching and Learning website (ctl.lincolnuca.edu).

CLASS RULES

1. Class attendance is required. Attendance will be taken each class at a time chosen by the instructor.
2. Students are required to arrive to class on time.
3. Submissions of home assignments will be conducted via the course website only (Canvas). No hard copy or email submissions will be accepted.
4. Registering on the class website is the responsibility of a student.

¹ Detailed description of learning outcomes and information about the assessment procedure are available at the Center for Teaching and Learning website (ctl.lincolnuca.edu).

5. All quizzes, exams, assignments, and projects must be completed and handed in on time. Late submissions will result in lower grade (each day of delay costs 4% points).
6. All quizzes, exams, and class assignments cannot be made up. No extra-credit assignment is available “upon request”.
7. No cheating and no plagiarism, please! Detected cheating/plagiarism will result in “F” for the assignment.

EXAMS

The exams will consist of questions based on lectures, assigned chapters and supplementary reading.

GROUP PROJECT

Every student must work on a research project for an in-class presentation as a part of a group. The broad topic of the group project is “Challenges in the world economy”. Even though this work is done in groups each student is expected to have a thorough knowledge and understanding of the whole project. Specific format of a research project will be presented in class. Research projects must comply with the Lincoln University guidelines.
