Assignments and projects require students to actively use resources of the library. Detailed guide to business resources of the library as well as the description of Lincoln University approach to information literacy are available at the Center for Teaching and Learning website (ctl.lincolnuca.edu).

PROCEDURE AND METHODOLOGY

Lecture method is used in combination with business case studies. The emphasis will be on learning by doing. Every student must participate in an intensive preparation and classroom activity.

COURSE PROJECT

Every student must complete and submit a plan for setting up a business operation in a new international market place. Final project will be presented orally on the last day of class.

REQUIREMENTS/HOMEWORK

Continuous assessment is emphasized. Four questions, posted on the board, and assigned readings are required every week. Reading, writing and “business case study” assignments will be scheduled throughout the course. Students must complete all assignments and take home exams on the dates scheduled. Plagiarism will result in the grade “F” and a report to the administration.

ATTENDANCE

Students are expected to attend each class session. If you cannot attend a class due to a valid reason, please notify the instructor prior to the class. There will be no make-up assignments.

EXAMS

Both midterm and final exams are structured as written essays to answer the given questions. Examples to illustrate and references to text and lectures mandatory. Exams will cover all assigned chapters, any additional readings or supplementary materials covered in class.

COMMENTS

- * Participation is required. What you put into the class will determine what you get out of it - and what others get out of it.
- * Please come on time. Late arrivals disturb everyone else.
- * If you miss a class, you are responsible for getting notes on the material covered from a classmate.
- * To avoid distracting noise in class, cellular phones must be turned off or the ringing mode silenced.

* Questions and comments during the class are welcome. Do not hesitate to ask questions - do not leave anything unclear for you.

MODIFICATION OF THE SYLLABUS

The instructor reserves the right to modify this syllabus at any time during the semester. Announcements of any changes will be made in the classroom.

INSTRUCTOR BIO

My first career was in operations for manufacturers. I worked as an expeditor, quality control inspector, junior chemist, front line supervisor and plant manager. I was lucky enough to be a poverty attorney during the “War on Poverty”. My third career was as a producer, director, script writer and actor for a murder mystery company. For the past thirty years I have had a consulting firm, specializing in management and marketing problems, both domestically and internationally.

Like many students, I pursued four degree programs while working full time. My passion is teaching. I have over thirty years of teaching graduate and undergraduate business classes. I have had the opportunity to work and travel to 193 countries.
