

Lincoln University HEERF (I-III), ARP, & CARES Act Student Funds Request (Revised June 4, 2021)

Student Eligibility Requirements: All students who are or were enrolled at Lincoln University on or after the date of the declaration of the national emergency due to the coronavirus (March 13, 2020) are eligible for emergency financial aid grants from HEERF, regardless of whether they completed a FAFSA or are eligible for Title IV.

If you already received a grant from Lincoln in 2020 or in spring 2021, you are eligible for a second grant, and need to complete a new grant request form.

Lincoln is required to prioritize domestic students with exceptional need, such as students who receive Pell Grants or are undergraduates with extraordinary financial circumstances, in awarding emergency financial aid grants to students. This includes citizens, permanent residents, refugees, asylum seekers, DACA recipients, other DREAMers, and similar undocumented students.

International students (F1 Status) may also receive HEERF grants who have exceptional need after taking into consideration their cost-of-attendance VISA conditions. As mentioned above the priority must be given to domestic students before international students.

Beyond Pell eligibility, other types of exceptional need could include students who may be eligible for other federal or state need-based aid or have faced significant unexpected expenses either for themselves or that would affect their financial circumstances, such as the loss of employment (if VISA authorizes work), reduced income, or food or housing insecurity.

Emergency financial aid grants may be used by students for any component of their cost of attendance or for emergency costs that arise due to coronavirus, such as tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health care) or childcare. Students determine how they may use their emergency financial aid grant within the allowable uses. Students can also use their grant to pay for accrued tuition debt at Lincoln, and to pay off their debit at Lincoln to re-enroll.

Some of the expenses that are eligible to be covered:

- Books and supplies for in-person or online courses
- Technology needs for online course delivery (internet, data plan, etc.)
