PROCEDURES AND METHODOLOGY

This is an online class.

Lecture method is combined with in-class discussions, case studies and assignments of various kinds. Participation in in-class activities is an essential part of the course and will be graded.

Assignments and projects require students to actively use resources of the library. Detailed guide to business resources of the library as well as the description of Lincoln University approach to information literacy are available at the Center for Teaching and Learning website (ctl.lincolnuca.edu).

CLASS RULES

1. Class attendance is required. Attendance will be taken each class at a time chosen by the instructor.
2. Students are required to login to class on time.
3. Submissions of home assignments will be conducted via the course website only (Canvas). No hard copy or email submissions will be accepted.
4. Registering on the class website is the responsibility of a student.
5. All quizzes, exams, assignments, and projects must be completed and handed in on time. Late submissions will result in lower grade (each day of delay costs 4% points).
6. Detected cheating/plagiarism will result in “F” for the assignment.

EXAMS

The exams will consist of questions based on lectures, assigned chapters and supplementary reading.

GROUP PROJECT

Every student must work on a research project for an in-class presentation as a part of a group. The broad topic of the group project is “Challenges in the global economy”. Even though this work is done in groups each student is expected to have a thorough knowledge and understanding of the whole project. Specific format of a research project will be presented in class. Research projects must comply with the Lincoln University guidelines.
