PROCEDURES AND METHODOLOGY

This is an online instruction course. Lecture method is used in combination with a supervised business case study. The emphasis will be on learning by doing assignments and projects require students to actively use resources of the library. A detailed guide to business resources of the library as well as the description of Lincoln University approach to information literacy are available at the Center for Teaching and Leaning website (cti.linclonuca.edu).

COURSE PROJECT

- Projects will be developed by designated teams.
- Every student must complete and submit a course project.
- The project includes an idea of a new e-Commerce business, its strategy and tactics, and implementation presentation on a prototype level.

REQUIREMENTS

Continuous assessment is emphasized. Students must complete all assignments and take all quizzes, mid-term exam and final exam on the dates due.

Plagiarism will result in the grade "F" and a report to the administration.

¹ the Center for Teaching and Learning website (ctl.lincolnuca.edu).

ATTENDANCE

Students are expected to attend each class session. If you cannot attend a class due to a valid reason, please notify the instructor prior to the class.

EXAMS

Both, midterm and final exams are structured as written true/false and multiple-choice questions that cover the theoretical material. Exams will cover all assigned chapters, any additional readings or supplementary materials covered in class. The exams are neither "open book" nor "open notes." Cheating in exam results in immediate termination of the exam, grade "F" with ZERO points, and report to the dean.
