Required Textbook:

Understanding Business, 9th Edition, W. G. Nickels, J. M. McHugh, S. M. McHugh; McGraw-Hill; ISBN 978-0-07-351170-2

Course Description:

A survey of the basic functions, objectives, and structure of a modern business within the framework of a free-enterprise system. The course focuses upon the specialization and interdependence of business function and skill in decision-making. It is a prerequisite for all business major courses except accounting and statistics.

Last Revision: January 20, 2010

Course Objectives:

1. To understand the concept of economic systems, competition, and business enterprises in the international marketplace.
2. To gain knowledge of business ethics and laws, accounting and computer data systems by which businesses are controlled, banking and securities.
3. To understand the types of business ownership for small and large enterprises, organizational structures and management function.
4. To discuss the fundamentals of insurance, production, marketing, human resources, and employee motivation.

Other Comments:

- Please participate. What you put into the class will determine what you get out of it – and what others get out of it.
- Please come on time. Late arrivals disturb everyone else. Attendance will be taken in 10-15 minutes after the beginning of each class.
- Students may not read other materials (newspapers, magazines) during class.
- Students are to remain in class during the entire session with the exception of breaks. Students are not allowed to come and go during class session.
- If you miss a class, you are responsible for getting notes/slide printouts on the material covered from a classmate or the instructor.
- To avoid distracting noise in class, cellular phones must be turned off or the ringing mode silenced.
- All class participants are expected to exhibit respectful behaviors to other students and the instructor. All students have the right and privilege to learn in the class, free from harassment and disruption. Inappropriate or disruptive behavior will not be tolerated, nor will lewd or foul language.
