Catalog description

The course objective is to prepare the student for the later BA 399, MBA Research Project. Emphasis is on practical work and not on memorizing or deriving formulas. Ethical aspects of research are featured. Students are expected to develop understanding and practice in research techniques, writing of short reports, use of statistical tools and presentation techniques, preparation of effective tables and diagrams, as well as footnotes and bibliographical references. (3 units) Prerequisites: BA 45 or BA 241, BA 301, BA 304

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be able to:

1. Understand the scientific method as well as requirements for a high quality research.
2. Clearly identify relevant business problem and design business research activities.
3. Conduct business research and collect various types of data.

4. Employ major business research methods.
5. Acquire improved analytical, communicative, and research skills.
6. Apply acquired knowledge in working on the Research Project (BA 399).

Procedures and methodology

Lecture method is combined with in-class discussions, case studies and home assignments of various kinds. Core concepts identified from the textbook will be augmented with supplementary sources (made available to students on the class website) and applied to the real life situations during class activities.

Class Rules

Class attendance is required. Attendance will be taken each class at a time chosen by the instructor.

All quizzes, exams, assignments and projects must be completed and handed in on time. Late submissions will result in lower grade (each day of delay costs 5% points).

Submissions of home assignments will be conducted via the course website only.

Most days of class, there will be a credit time or a short in-class writing assignment.

Make-up quizzes or exams may be allowed only in extraordinary circumstances.

Plagiarism is not tolerated and will result in F for the assignment, quiz, or exam.

Exams

The exams will consist of questions based on lectures, assigned chapters and supplementary reading.

Course Project

Every student must complete a research project for an in-class presentation. Specific format and research topics will be determined later and discussed in class. Research projects must comply with the Lincoln University guidelines.
